

The Reflector.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1892.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Geo. S. Elston, of Newark, N. J., is visiting his brother, S. Elston, for a few weeks.

Chas. Graham, one of Junction City's prosperous creamery managers, was in the city last evening on business.

Mrs. J. W. Gibson returned yesterday from a visit with her son who is an operator on the Missouri Pacific at Richland, Kansas.

Miss May Wilson, of Atwood, Col., is visiting relatives. She will spend the winter here taking advantage of our excellent schools.

F. K. Jacobs, who has been for nearly a year in Washington State and California, has returned better satisfied than ever with the Sunflower State.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Edgerton, of Sheridan, Mo., are in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Finley. Mr. E. will return tomorrow; his wife remains for a longer visit. They were formerly residents of Dickinson county and have many friends here.

RECENT REFLECTIONS.

—The Chapman base ball club has sent the Abilene Stars a challenge to play Saturday. It will be accepted. The Stars want to wear those pretty suits.

—The two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Kraybill, of Newbern township, died of membranous croup Tuesday night. The parents will have sincere sympathy in their sorrow.

—Congressman Davis has no trouble in traveling "home." He was in the other night and nobody went to see him. When his son Charlie isn't around to carry a "Welcome Home" banner John has a lonesome time.

—The Democratic National committee surprised Hon. J. S. Holliger, president of the Abilene National, today by sending him a big package of free trade pamphlets attempting to prove the theory of protection entirely and completely false. Mr. Holliger is the wrong man and the documents will be used to kindle the bank's fires this winter.

Institute Postponed.

The South Dickinson institute, to have been held at Dillon next Saturday, has been postponed until later in the season on account of scarlet fever. Date will be announced.

District Court.

The case of Cowperthwaite vs. Strahan resulted in judgment for plaintiff for $15.20.

Court reconvened Monday a. m. The liquor case injunctions continued from last term were made perpetual. The case of Miles vs. Robinson was given a change of venue to Geary county.

Boller vs. Abilene National bank, decision reserved by the court. The remainder of the day has been devoted to confirmations and other routine business.

A Birthday Surprise.

KENNEY, Sept. 24.—A few days ago the friends and neighbors of Mrs. G. H. Peckham gave her a pleasant surprise, it being her seventy second birthday. They kept coming from 9 o'clock till 12 until the kitchen table was loaded with well filled baskets of cake, pie, chicken, etc. At noon the table was spread and it was rich in its abundance. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Butchy and daughter Callie, Mrs. Ingold, Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. Ingleston, Mrs. Ballard, Mrs. Ferris, Mrs. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Grigg, Carl Cook, Mrs. Mason and Miss Sallie Mason.

The presents were as follows: Mrs. Cook, pair slippers; Mrs. Ryan a dress; Mrs. Ballard, hand painted spectacle case; Mrs. Grigg, handkerchief; Mrs. Cline, a lovely apron; Mrs. Ryan, China cup and saucer; Mrs. Pruesdale, lovely taffeta dress.

Mr. and Mrs. Peckham are old settlers of Dickinson county, having made this their home for twenty years, but expect to depart for Jamestown, N. Y. in November to make that their future home.

CHAPMAN NOTES.

CHAPMAN, Sept. 27.—Chapman is having a real genuine boom. New sidewalks are being put down and the old ones repaired in all parts of town. Several dwelling houses are in course of construction. F. F. Whitehair will soon build a warehouse to be followed before long by a store building.

E. Fancher has moved his jewelry store from the postoffice room to the next room east and he now has a neat and cozy room which enables him to show his goods very effectually.

Quite a number of Chapmanites took in the county fair and races last week.

Harry Brezler has canceled his engagement with J. M. Clifford and will seek his fortune elsewhere.

T. A. Borman came down from Enterprise Sunday.

The town has one thing which is a disgrace to her, and to any town that suffers it. It is a crowd of about fifty loafers upon her streets Sunday. Last Sunday two drunken men were locked up and one or two more seen since.

The High school faculty's reception was a grand success. Everyone present enjoyed it. The refreshments were indeed refreshing and everyone went away feeling it was a pleasure to have attended.

John Lowry went to his school near Carlton on Saturday.

H. H. Banker stopped for a short visit with friends on his way to Manhattan where he will enter the Agricultural college.

NORTH DICKINSON NOTES.

SPECIAL REFLECTOR CORRESPONDENCE.

The love feast at the Dunkard church Saturday evening and Sunday was well attended. Rev. Keller, from South Dickinson, was present.

Most of the farmers in this vicinity have finished threshing their large wheat crops.

Miss Dora Marts, Clinton Marts, Wm. Brastrator, Geo. Phillips and Elmer Egan will attend the Kansas City fair.

Jas. McNeill and Mrs. Samuel Anderson are quite sick with typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Hector Henthorn, recently married, are preparing to move to Oklahoma.

Phipps and Warnock are done threshing for the season. They did excellent work.

Miss Myrtle Wick began teaching Sept. 19 in the new school house at Walnut Grove. Miss Wick is one of our best teachers and we predict for her a successful term.

Daniel Loper and family are living in the house formerly occupied by Mr. Switzer.
